

CHINA'S HUA QUAN VILLAGE ART RESIDENCY PROGRAM

In order to broaden artists global horizons and to promote international exchange experiences, Hua Quan Village sincerely invites global artists to join our art residency program. The program will allow artists to experience Chinese culture, expand international vision, and increase the visibility of their own works in the process of international artist exchange.

We believe that through the process of interaction with local artists, the resident artists are provided with opportunity to strengthen international networking and international participation. The experience of different culture inspires creativity and by over coming cultural and language barriers, the artist also has the opportunity to connect with local community.

Information's and conditions:

The artist agrees to the following:

1. The duration of the art residency program is a minimum of 3 months, and a maximum of 6 months. (The maximum length visa recognized by China, is 180 days).
Looking forward to having ample time to have in-depth cooperation with artists, to experience Chinese culture, to the artist to inspire inspiration locally, and to create connections with the implementation of local community services and public welfare projects.
2. The artist is responsible for obtaining a valid travel visa to China.
